I heard Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of for such complaints and for that reason I used them. They gave me relief right away. Shepmose debated the negative side of this question.

Alexander Brodowski delivered an oration on "Immigration: Its Present and Future," while William M. Grimsley chose as his subject, "Progress, the Result of Discontent." The judges awarded the debater's medal to Mr. Shepmose and the orator's to Mr. Brodowski. C. A. Scott was awarded a medal for improvement in debate, and Leif Scheie for improvement in oratory.

The celebration of the senior class was witnessed by many people yesterday morning, the following being the program: Address by the president, W. R. Dameron, historian, J. D. Moore, Jr., prophet, Wayne C. Metcalf, valedictorian, R. C. Warburton.

Today was the closing day of the session, and the end of a successful year. Besides an address by Galliard Hunt, the honorary degree of LL. D. was formally bestowed upon Dr. Hunt, after which degrees, diplomas and scholarships were awarded.

FORMER STUDENTS HERE

Among the former William and Mary men here this week to attend the finals was Mr. Chas. B. Bowry superintendent of schools of Amelia and Nottaway. Charlie is a Williamsburg boy, a son of Mr. Bushrod Bowry, and since his elevation to the position he holds has made good in every way. His many friends here are glad to hear of his success and to see him back again.

Bob Jackson and G. L. H. Johnson, two younger alumni, were also here. Both are successful teachers.

Others who are back are Messrs. Fred and Reed Hynson, and Thomas Geddy, Jr., and Willie Neblett, who have been attending Washington and Lee University this session.

This has been the oldest June on record and many parts of the country have suffered. Fires have been a necessity here this week, and in fact, there have been few weeks all spring when a fire would not have been welcome evening and mornings.

For House of Delegates

Having been requested so to do by numerous friends throughout the District, I hereby announce myself a candidate for the HOUSE OF DELEGATES to represent the District composed of the counties of New Kent, Charles City, James City, York, Warwick and the city of Williamsburg, subject to the DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY, August 5, 1913. Your support is solicited.
